

Subject	ESAL 0450-01
Topic	Trends that reduce human impact on the environment
Lesson Title	Think Pair Share environmental/sustainability trends
Level	Intermediate	Duration	50min

Lesson Objective:
Discussion of personal and social trends that can be used to reduce human impact on the environment. Can you appeal to a community leader to implement some advancements to the problems that affect the environment.

Summary of Tasks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students share with the class things they enjoy about nature, or some activities they may enjoy doing while in nature. 15-20min <ul style="list-style-type: none"> le fishing, hiking, camping, sketching etc Students tell the teacher something they love about nature If possible, students can talk about a special place in nature from their homeland Think pair share some small things that individuals and communities (possibly institutions if there is a group of three) can do to mitigate their environmental footprint 20-25min <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use of internet allowed Teacher explains the metaphor of the term environmental footprint In pairs/ groups of three, students will come up with a strategy to mitigate impacts in for each of the categories Groups will discuss their findings and explain trends and why they may help, from minor to major impacts Why are these trends important to implement?

Materials/ Equipment
ppt

References
n/a

Take Home Tasks
n/a